Note concerning the Listing annexed to the OIML Bulletin

The BIML has decided to no longer publish the separate booklet containing details of OIML Members and Publications as an insert to the OIML Bulletin.

The reason behind this decision is that the information changes so often that the Annex rapidly becomes out of date, especially in view of the fact that the Bulletin is a quarterly publication.

However, Readers are invited to consult our web site <http://www.oiml.org> where our databases are updated in real-time. For those Readers not having Internet access, the Bureau will be pleased to mail you a printout of the information published on the relevant web site pages, free of charge.

We thank you for your comprehension and are at your disposal should you require further information.
