Part 2: Test report format

Dear Colleagues,

The Draft revisions of OIML Recommendations R 51-1 and R 51-2 have been uploaded onto the Members Page of the OIML web site in the form of a WinZip file. CIML Members are now invited to vote on these Draft revisions in a preliminary ballot in the case of R 51-1 and an approval in the case of R 51-2.

Please see the BIML note concerning terminology inside the cover of the Draft Recommendation. During the voting period, the BIML and the TC 9/SC 2 Secretariat will work on the terminology used, and the final Draft Recommendation will be prepared based on any comments received from CIML Members. The final Draft R 51-1 will be submitted to the CIML at its 41st meeting in October 2006, and the final Draft R 51-2 will be published directly, provided that the result of the present CIML ballots are favorable.

The deadline for the ballot is 10 July 2006.
