While these reports cover a wide range of OIML data extracted from our database, Members may request additional reports if certain information they require is not contained in the above.

The second new page at <http://www.oiml.org/download/notifications.html> lists recent notifications, under Article 10.6 of the WTO TBT Agreement, by WTO Member States of changes to technical legislation related to metrology or which may have implications for legal metrology.

For additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Yours faithfully,

Editor/WebMaster, BIML
